

DISCLOSURE AND CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

1.0 Statement of Policy

Bitfarms Ltd., its subsidiaries, and affiliated companies (hereinafter jointly referred to as “Bitfarms” or the “Company”) is committed to maintaining the highest standards of integrity and accountability in its business affairs while at the same time seeking to grow its business and enhance shareholder value.

The guidelines and principles that should govern Bitfarms’ business conduct are set out in Bitfarms’ Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) which can be accessed on Bitfarms’ website at www.bitfarms.com.

As part of its commitment to ethical and responsible business conduct, and to comply with securities laws Bitfarms has put in place this Disclosure and Confidentiality Policy (the “Policy”). This Policy is complemented by the Company’s Securities Trading Policy, available at www.bitfarms.com.

Unless otherwise stated, all defined terms in this Policy have the meaning set out in Schedule “A”.

2.0 General Principles

It is a fundamental principle in applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules that everyone who invests in securities of a publicly-listed company should have equal and timely access to material information that may affect their investment decisions. Accordingly, under applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules:

- (a) every publicly-listed company must make prompt disclosure of all material information relating to the Company;
- (b) every Insider of a publicly-listed company and others who are in a Special Relationship with the Company (as such terms are defined in Schedule “A”), who have undisclosed material information about the Company are not permitted to:
 - inform (tip) others of undisclosed material information, except in the necessary course of business; or
 - purchase or sell securities of the Company while in the possession of undisclosed material information; and
- (c) every Reporting Insider of a publicly-listed company (as defined in Schedule “A”), including significant shareholders, directors and officers, must report their trades in securities of the Company according to the Company’s Securities Trading Policy, available at www.bitfarms.com.

3.0 Objectives

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure the timely and accurate disclosure of material information relating to the Company in accordance with applicable securities laws and rules of the Toronto Stock Exchange and/or the TSX Venture Exchange (together, the “TSX”) and/or NASDAQ, to protect the improper use or disclosure of material information or confidential information about the Company.

In addition, we are committed to practices that help ensure accurate, wide and timely dissemination of material information to our shareholders, the investment community and the public in general. This includes balanced communications, non-selective disclosure, and use of communications technology to facilitate fair access to such information.

4.0 Scope of this Policy

4.1 Individuals Subject to this Policy

General -This Policy applies to all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of the Company and/or its affiliates and anyone associated with any of the foregoing individuals, including their household members, holding companies or any trust or estate in which the director, officer, employee or consultant has a substantial interest.

Insiders - Insiders of the Company (as defined in Schedule "A"), including significant shareholders and directors and officers of the Company, are subject to additional obligations found in Bitfarms' Securities Trading Policy.

Copies of this Policy are made available to directors, officers, employees and consultants, either directly or by posting of the Policy on Bitfarms' website at www.bitfarms.com. All directors, officers and employees will be informed whenever significant changes are made. New directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors will be provided with a copy of this Policy.

4.2 Communications Subject to This Policy

This Policy applies to all disclosure made by the Company, including:

- (a) news releases;
- (b) documents filed with securities regulators and stock exchanges such as management information circulars, annual information forms, annual and interim financial statements and related management's discussion and analysis, prospectuses, issuer bid circulars, directors' circulars and material change reports;
- (c) speeches, press conferences and management presentations;
- (d) interviews with market participants (including analysts), institutional or other investors and the media;
- (e) communications with shareholders;
- (f) information posted on the Company's website or authorized social media outlets;
- (g) email and other electronic communications; and
- (h) non-public information provided to rating agencies and regulators.

5.0 Material Information

In this Policy, material information is any information relating to the business and affairs of Bitfarms and its subsidiaries that results in or would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of any of the Company's securities. Material information includes any material change. A material change means a change in the business, operations or capital of the Company that would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of any of the Company's securities and includes a decision by the Board of Directors or by senior management (where management believes that Board of Directors' confirmation of the decision is probable) to implement a material change.

The determination of whether or not information is material information often involves the exercise of difficult business judgment based on experience. Examples of information which may be material information include but are not limited to those examples listed on Schedule "A", under "Examples of Potentially Material Information".

6.0 Disclosure Committee

6.1 Mandate

Bitfarms has a disclosure committee (the "Disclosure Committee") which, as determined in the Charter of the Disclosure Committee (the "Charter"), will be responsible for assisting the Company's senior executives in:

- (a) determining whether information is material information;
- (b) ensure the timely disclosure of material information in accordance with applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules and regulations and the Charter;
- (c) reviewing all communications and materials relating to the media and interviews, social media content, conferences and sponsorships, corporate presentations and website content;
- (d) monitoring compliance with this Policy;
- (e) overseeing Bitfarms disclosure controls and procedures;
- (f) monitoring market trading activity in the Company's securities, and in the securities of any other issuer that is affected by the undisclosed material information, in order to determine if the confidential material information is being misused; and
- (g) reviewing the Company's website on a regular basis to ensure that disclosure on the website is accurate, complete and up to date.

6.2 Composition

Members of the Disclosure Committee will be:

- (a) The President;
- (b) The Chief Financial Officer;
- (c) The Vice President of Marketing; and
- (d) The General Counsel.

6.3 Responsibility to Advise the Disclosure Committee of Potential Material Information

Any person to whom this Policy applies who becomes aware of a new development, circumstance or information that may constitute material information must immediately advise at least one member of the Disclosure Committee. If there is any doubt whether any particular information is material information, a member of the Disclosure Committee should be consulted. For clarity, no disclosure is required to be made by a director in respect of information disclosed during a meeting of the Board of Directors or in any written communication to the Board of Directors from management or a committee of the Board.

7.0. Spokespersons

7.1. Individuals Who Are Authorized to Speak on Behalf of the Company

Only the President, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the Vice President of Marketing and the Head of Investor Relations, are authorized spokespersons for Bitfarms (other than, in the case of employees of the Company, in the usual and necessary course of business) (each, a “Spokesperson”). Only the Spokespersons of Bitfarms, or anyone designated by them from time to time can make public oral statements on behalf of the Company or otherwise communicate on behalf of the Company with market participants (including analysts), investors, the media, shareholders or rating agencies.

7.2. Referral of Inquiries

Every person to whom this Policy applies who is approached and asked to comment in any manner on the business or affairs of the Company (other than, in the case of employees of the Company, in the usual and necessary course of business) must not respond except to refer all inquires to a Spokesperson.

8.0 Disclosure of Material Information

8.1. Factual and Balanced

Material information disclosed by the Company must comply generally with the following requirements: (a) the disclosure must be factual and balanced; (b) the disclosure must include any information the omission of which would make the disclosure misleading; and (c) unfavourable information must be disclosed as promptly and completely as favourable information.

8.2 Press Releases

The Company will promptly disclose all material information under applicable securities laws and stock exchanges rules by issuing and filing a news release.

8.3 Confidential Material Information

In restricted circumstances when it is determined by the Disclosure Committee that the general disclosure of material information would be unduly detrimental to the Company’s interests (for example, if general disclosure of the material information would prejudice negotiations in a corporate transaction), the Disclosure Committee may authorize the filing of a confidential material change report, with the appropriate securities commissions, IIROC the Toronto Stock Exchange or NASDAQ, as required by applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules.

In such cases, the Disclosure Committee shall promptly advise the Board of Directors of the fact that a confidential material change report was filed and distribute a copy of the confidential material change report to the Board of Directors, together with the Disclosure Committee's reasons for concluding that it would be unduly detrimental to Company's interests for the material information to be generally disclosed.

The Disclosure Committee will also ensure to inform all persons with knowledge of the material confidential information maintain complete confidentiality and not disclose the information to any other person, except in the necessary course of business.

The Disclosure Committee shall promptly disclose the material information generally when the Disclosure Committee determines the basis for confidentiality ceases to exist.

9.0 Forward-Looking Information

Forward-looking information may enable shareholders and the investment community to better evaluate the Company and its prospects. If Bitfarms decides to or is required to disclose forward-looking information, in any disclosure document, presentation or other oral or written public communication, it shall comply with all applicable legal requirements, including the following:

- (a) forward-looking information shall only be released in circumstances determined by one or more of the Chief Executive Officer, the President, the Chief Financial Officer or the Disclosure Committee;
- (b) such information will be clearly identified as forward looking and will be accompanied by appropriate contingency and cautionary language or notices, which shall refer to the risks and uncertainties that may cause the results to differ materially from those projected in the statements;
- (c) all material assumptions used in the preparation of the forward-looking information shall be described in reasonable detail;
- (d) all forward-looking information shall be accompanied by a statement that disclaims Bitfarms' intention or obligation to update or revise the forward-looking information, whether the result of new information, future events or otherwise. Notwithstanding this disclaimer, should subsequent events prove past statements to be materially different, Bitfarms may in its discretion choose to update or revise the forward-looking information, subject to any requirements to do so under applicable securities laws and exchange regulations;
- (e) at the beginning of any conference call or presentation, a Spokesperson shall make a statement that forward-looking information may be discussed. This shall include appropriate cautionary language or references to cautionary statements contained in publicly available documents containing the assumptions, sensitivities and a full discussion of the risks and uncertainties; and
- (f) if Bitfarms has issued a forecast or projection in connection with an offering document pursuant to applicable securities laws, Bitfarms shall update that forecast or projection as required by applicable securities laws and exchange regulations.

10.0. Electronic Communications

All communications, including electronic communications, must comply with securities laws. Electronic communications include electronic mail, websites, blogs, social media accounts and the Canadian System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval ("SEDAR").

10.1. Website

The Company's website should not contain any disclosure that would, whether through website architecture, overt statement or omission, materially misrepresent the Company or its business prospects or financial status. Disclosure of material information on the website does not constitute general disclosure and is not adequate disclosure of material information.

Links to Third Party Sites - Unless approved by the Disclosure Committee, the Company's website may not link to a third-party website. In the event such a link is permitted, it should include a notice that advises the reader that they are leaving the website and that the Company is not responsible for the contents of the other site.

Analyst Reports - The Company may provide on its website a list of all (and only all) of the investment firms that provide coverage of the Company, along with relevant contact information. The Company may not, however, provide links to those firms or the analyst reports themselves.

Investor Relations Material - Investor relations material shall be contained within a separate section of the Company's website and will include a notice that advises the reader that the information posted was accurate at the time of posting, but may be superseded by subsequent disclosures. All data posted to the website, including text and audiovisual material, shall show the date such material was issued or the date it was subsequently amended.

If Bitfarms is considering a distribution of its securities, the content of the Bitfarms website must be reviewed before and during the offering to ensure compliance with applicable securities laws.

10.2. Chat Rooms, blogs or social networking

No person to whom this Policy applies may participate in internet chat rooms or newsgroup discussions, such as blogs or social networking services, on matters pertaining to the Company, unless that person has been authorized to do so by the Disclosure Committee. And in any case, that person may only participate in accordance with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, and may not at any time discuss confidential information or material non-public information. Persons to whom this Policy applies are discouraged from participating in chat rooms or newsgroup discussions on matters related to the Company's competitors.

11.0. Communication with Investment Community and Media

Unless specifically authorized according to the terms of Section 7.1 of this Policy, employees and other Bitfarms personnel who are not authorized spokespersons must not respond under any circumstances to inquiries from the investment community or media. All such inquiries will be referred to an authorized spokesperson.

11.1. Communication with Investors and Analysts

Only a Spokesperson or a person designated in writing by the President, the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer may communicate with investors and analysts. The Company's policy with respect to interactions with investors and analysts is as follows: selective disclosure must be avoided; no person to whom this Policy applies shall approve or influence analyst opinions or conclusions, aside from merely correcting factual errors, provided that such corrections are based on non-material information or material information that has been generally disclosed; and no person to whom this Policy applies shall distribute analyst reports to persons outside the Company or otherwise publicly endorse such a report.

11.2. Communication with the Media

In communicating with the media, the following procedures shall be followed:

- (a) Bitfarms shall not provide any material undisclosed information or related documents to a reporter on an exclusive basis;
- (b) Spokespersons or those receiving any inquiries should promptly inform the Disclosure Committee of all media inquiries. Senior management or subject matter experts should be utilized in key announcements, as appropriate, to build credibility and provide more informed disclosure; and
- (c) Media news conferences on financial matters are normally conducted in separate forums from investors but access to information disclosed should be similar in all material respects. The Chief Executive Officer, the President and/or the Chief Financial Officer should attend media conferences to monitor that material information has not been generally disclosed.

11.3. Quiet Periods

During a no-trade period, also known as blackout period, the Company shall not initiate or participate in any meetings or telephone contacts with market participants (including analysts), institutional or other investors or the media, other than to respond to unsolicited inquiries concerning factual matters. During such quiet period, the Company will not make presentations at any analyst or investor conferences, or make any other external speeches or other presentations, except with the prior consent of the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or the CFO and at least one other member of the Disclosure Committee.

12.0. Market Rumors

The Company's general policy is to neither confirm nor deny rumours when asked to comment. Authorized Spokespeople should simply state, "Bitfarms has a policy that we do not comment on rumours and speculation". However, when authorized by the Disclosure Committee, Authorized Spokespeople, may make exceptions, and respond to certain rumours that are deemed harmful to Bitfarms interests, if not rebutted.

13.0 Maintaining Confidential Corporate Information

13.1 Corporate Information

Any director, officer, employee, consultant or Contractor of Bitfarms who is privy to confidential information (regardless of whether such information is also material information) should maintain such information in confidence and should not disclose such information to anyone other than authorized Bitfarms' personnel who have a legitimate need to know such information in connection with their duties and who have been advised of the confidential nature of such information. In order to prevent the misuse or inadvertent disclosure of confidential information, Bitfarms directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors should take reasonable steps to safeguard confidential information, including the following:

- (a) do not discuss Bitfarms' business and affairs in places where the discussion may be overheard;
- (b) confidential documents should not be read or displayed in public places or discarded where they can be retrieved;
- (c) documents and files containing confidential information should be kept in a safe place with restricted access;
- (d) transmission of documents by email, text or other electronic means should be made only where it is reasonable to assume that transmission can be made and received under secure conditions; and
- (e) documents containing confidential information should be promptly removed from conference rooms and work areas after meetings have concluded and extra copies of confidential documents should be destroyed.

Every effort shall be made to limit access to such confidential information to only those who need to know the information, and such persons shall be advised that the information is to be kept confidential.

Outside parties who receive or are privy to undisclosed confidential information in the course of conducting business with Bitfarms must confirm their commitment to non-disclosure in a written confidentiality agreement.

13.2 Third Party Information

The Company is generally required to keep confidential information it receives from third parties such as customers, suppliers, business partners or other issuers with which the Company is involved in a transaction or proposed transaction. Any person to whom this Policy applies must keep this third-party information strictly confidential and take the same measures with respect to the confidential information of the third party as they take with respect to confidential information of the Company.

13.3 Necessary Course of Business

Confidential information may be disclosed to selected individuals if doing so is in the necessary course of business and on a strict need-to-know basis. Disclosure in the necessary course of business may cover communications with those persons or entities listed on Schedule "B" - Disclosure in the Necessary Course of Business. The individual receiving the confidential information must be advised that:

- (a) the information is confidential and may not be disclosed to anyone else, other than in the necessary course of business (and then only with appropriate Company approvals);

- (b) and they cannot trade, or assist others to trade, in the Company's or third party's securities until the confidential information is generally disclosed.

In appropriate circumstances, an outside party receiving confidential information in the necessary course of business may be required to sign a confidentiality agreement. Disclosure to market participants (including analysts), institutional or other investors and the media is generally not considered to be in the necessary course of business. Anyone who is uncertain about whether disclosure is in the necessary course of business should consult with a member of the Disclosure Committee.

14.0. Selective Disclosure

All directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Bitfarms are legally bound not to disclose confidential information, including material non-public information, to anyone outside of Bitfarms. Disclosure of such information that has not been publicly disclosed to any person or select group, including investment analysts, institutional investors, other market professionals and the media, is considered selective disclosure. Selective disclosure is illegal and is prohibited.

14.1. Situations Requiring Disclosure

The Company may be required to disclose material information generally by news release in any of the circumstances described below:

Inadvertent Selective Disclosure – if the Company becomes aware, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that undisclosed material information, or rumours about it, has been inadvertently disclosed to selected individuals, or leaked;

Misuse of Material information – if the Company becomes aware, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that someone is trading the Company's securities with knowledge of undisclosed material information, or rumours about it (for example, if there is unusual trading activity in the Company's securities); or

Errors in Previous Disclosure – if the Company learns that previous disclosure contained a material error at the time it was given, and the correction constitutes material information. Pending the material information being disclosed generally, the Company shall contact the persons to whom the undisclosed material information was disclosed and inform them (i) that the information is undisclosed material information; and (ii) that they have a legal obligation to not disclose the information to others or to trade in securities of Company, or the securities of any other issuer that is affected by the material information.

15.0. Insider Trading

Securities legislation prohibits anyone in a Special Relationship with a Reporting Issuer from trading in securities of the Reporting Issuer with knowledge of Material Information regarding the Reporting Issuer that has not been Generally Disclosed. This prohibited activity is commonly known as "insider trading." Insider trading is beyond the scope of this Policy (See the Bitfarms Securities Trading Policy for further requirements on insider trading).

16.0. Consequences of Non-Compliance with this Policy

Failure to comply with this Policy may result in severe consequences, which could include internal disciplinary action or termination of employment or consulting arrangements without notice. The violation of this Policy may also violate certain securities laws as well as exchanges rules and regulations and if it appears that a director, officer or employee may have violated such laws or regulations, Bitfarms may refer the matter to the appropriate regulatory authorities, which could lead to penalties, fines or even possibly imprisonment.

17.0. Annual Certification

All directors and officers of Bitfarms, together with any employees, consultants and contractors specified by the Board of Directors of Bitfarms Ltd., shall provide annual certification of compliance with this Policy in the form attached to Bitfarms' Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

The Chief Executive Officer of Bitfarms shall be responsible for ensuring that annual certifications are obtained on or before the end of the first fiscal quarter of each year for all directors, officers, specified employees, specified consultants and specified contractors and for providing written confirmation to the Board of Directors that such certifications have been obtained and summarizing the results thereof.

18.0. Review of Policy

The Board of Directors of Bitfarms Ltd. shall annually review and evaluate this Policy to determine whether the Policy is effective in ensuring accurate, complete and timely disclosure in accordance with Bitfarms' disclosure obligations.

19.0. Queries

If you have any questions about how this Policy should be followed in a particular case, please contact the Chief Financial Officer.
